

The Lord Is My Shepherd

Words & Music by Glenda H. Davis, 2005

The Lord Jesus Christ is my Shepherd;
Never shall I lack what I need.
He makes me lie down by still waters
And in green luscious pastures to feed.
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
So I won't dishonor His name;
And when those paths lead through danger,
Without fear His presence I claim!

*He's my Shepherd!
He's always with me!
Though my enemies try to surround me,
When they see my Shepherd, they flee.....!
He's my Shepherd!
My cup overflows.....!
He's my Shepherd,
And the enemy knows!*

The Lord Jesus Christ is my Shepherd;
He knows me and calls me by name.
He invites me to share in His kingdom,
Free from all guilt and all shame.
I see the old scars of the nailprints
That I put in my Good Shepherd's hands!
As He sees the sad look on my face,
He says, "Child, I would do it again."

*He's my Shepherd!
He's always with me!
Though my enemies try to surround me,
When they see my Shepherd, they flee.....!
He's my Shepherd!
My cup overflows.....!
He's my Shepherd,
And the enemy knows!*
